YULE HOLDS UP BRADLEY'S CASE

Sheriff Says Arrest May

Come Tuesday

R.P. 12/23/62
Edgar Eugene Bradley, the North Hollywood, Calif., broadcaster whom District Attorney Jim Garrison accuses of conspiring to kill President John F. Kennedy, faces arrest there the day after Christmas.

A Los Angeles sheriff's office spokesman said Friday action will probably be delayed until Tuesday on a warrant for Bradley's arrest issued here Thursday.

The 49-year-old West Coast representative of a radio evangelist has denied any connection with the Kennedy assassination in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963. But Bradley said he will surrender at any time requested, though he will fight extradition to Louisiana.

Los Angeles Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess is expected to consult with that county's district attorney after the warrant arrives to determine what course to take.

"If we even receive any knowledge that a felony exists, we have practically no choice but to make an arrest," the spokesman said. But he added no action is likely before Tuesday.

Garrison claims Bradley was in Dallas at time of the assassination and that federal agents knew what he was doing.

Bradley, who says he was questioned about three years ago by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents seeking "another Gene Bradley," maintains the district attorney's charge involves a case of mistaken identity.
